GILTEDGE
TRAVEL

GILTEDGE TRAVEL is a South African private company owned and managed by our directors - Sean Kritzinger (Managing) and Murray Gardiner (Financial) and the various divisions of the company include:

Inbound Tours Division

We are a tour operator that specializes in tailor-made itineraries for international clients visiting Southern Africa on an individual basis or as part of a select group.

We offer self drive itineraries throughout Southern Africa, fly in safaris and game lodge experiences, luxury train travel, vehicle hire, luxury hotel and guesthouse accommodation, meet and assist services at major airports, qualified SATOUR registered tour guides (including foreign language guides), special interest tours (e.g MBA / Study Group, botany, birding, fishing, walking), air and boat charter, chauffeur drive services, IATA ticketing for all international and domestic airfare requirements and mobile phone rentals.

Our team of expert consultants are well versed in handling all our clients' travel needs. We have a range of suppliers and products, each specifically selected for the quality and services they can offer our clients.
