

Radisson Royal Hotel, Moscow

Now Open

The Rezidor Hotel Group proudly announces the much awaited opening of the spectacular, luxurious and truly royal Radisson hotel in Moscow. Rezidor's new flagship hotel in the Russian Capital and the hotel opens following an extensive 3-year renovation in one of Stalin's legendary skyscrapers "Seven Sisters."

Located in the city centre on a bow of the Moskva River at the conjunction of Kutuzovsky Prospect and Novy Arbat, two of the city's most prestigious commercial thoroughfares. The hotel has 506 rooms and suites as well as 38 services apartments with kitchenettes.

The multi-functional and professionally equipped Conference Centre includes 4 executive meeting rooms, a conference hall and a ballroom. These are all decorated in the empire style.

The main restaurant "Veranda" serves contemporary Mediterranean cuisine and classic international dishes, while the "Tatler Club" with its innovative fusion cuisine is a true must. At "Bono" guests enjoy Italian specialities, "Farsi" invites you to taste exotic Iranian Menus and "Takasa" on the 31st floor serves sophisticated Japanese delicacies. The Royal Wellness Club is an exclusive health-and-fitness centre, including a 50m heated indoor pool, a perfectly equipped gym, a beauty parlour and spa area, thermal baths and massage rooms.
